June E. Shaver Healthcare Scholarship Application for the 2019-2020 Academic Year

RiverView Foundation is honored to provide this regional health care scholarship program established in memory, honor, and respect of June E. Shaver's life values and commitment to serving others. In her professional career, June was a woman of high integrity, impeccable work ethic, and dedication. She was a strong and passionate leader, actively engaged in community service. She was a well-rounded woman of many interests. She valued self-motivation, high achievement, and the betterment of self.

Please answer the following three essay questions:

 Please, answer on a separate piece of paper - no more than 500 words for each question. ***

1. June was an individual who knew both what she did and did not want in her career choice. Please share with us what you want and/or do not want in a career.

“[June] didn't really plan on being a medical clinic administrator but she was fortunate enough to be in the right place at the right time. There were only three things she did not want in a job. She did not want a job that wasn't a challenge. She did not want a job that didn't pay well. And, she did not want a job that had no future.”

- Excerpt from an article about June's life

2. You have many strengths and attributes – what are three strengths that you recognize in yourself that you will bring to the healthcare field?

3. Please share with us what lead you to this field of healthcare. (Ex: a personal experience, a work or educational opportunity, a person who influenced you, etc.)
